jail time. The minor had one more criminal court hearing when he was transferred to Yolo County Juvenile Detention Center by Immigration and Customs enforcement (ICE).

On 8/1/2017, the caseworker spoke with Officer [REDACTED] the supervisor of the minor's probation officer, Officer [REDACTED]. Officer [REDACTED] reported that the minor never met with Officer [REDACTED] because he was transferred to Yolo Juvenile Detention Center. Officer [REDACTED] stated that the charges were minor and although there was some suspicion by the detectives that the minor was MS13, there was no proof. According to the information Officer [REDACTED] provided, the minor was on school property after school hours on 10/25/2016. On 9/21/2016, the minor was with suspected MS13 members. Officer [REDACTED] reported that the arresting police officer was [REDACTED].

On 8/24/2017, the caseworker called the 3rd Precinct Suffolk County Police Department to gather more information about the arrest. However, neither Officer [REDACTED] nor the police department would be able to provide the caseworker with more information. A subpoena would need to be submitted. On 8/24/2017, the caseworker also called criminal records to get more information, but the caseworker would need to submit a request and there is currently a 4-month wait.

The sponsor reported that the two detectives that detained the minor continued visiting the home after they had detained the minor. They would come twice a week. About two months ago, the owner of the house told the police that if they did not stop coming, he would report them. They have not returned. The sponsor and minor stated that the minor was not involved with MS13.
